

Newsletter – MONDAY 23 SEPTEMBER 2019

Headteacher Mrs Allen

This week is International week. All classes have chosen a different country to learn about. We will be looking at the cultures, languages and foods from around the world. Please ask your child which country they are learning about and look for interesting facts they could share with their class.

Heather Blakeman is our new Family Liaison Officer and is here to work with our children and families. If you think there is anything we could help you with, please feel free to call into the office to arrange an appointment.

Hoopstarz visit

The children had a great fun day on Friday 20th September with Sharon, our instructor, hula hooping! They had such fun learning new skills and having a great time exercising in the sun.

Aldi 'Get set to eat fresh' Kits for Schools

Just to remind you all that we're collecting these stickers in school for a chance to win £20,000 for school sporting equipment.
