

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Phase 1 Phonics Environmental Sounds Activity Booklet

Goldilocks and the Three Bears Phase 1 Phonics Environmental Sounds Activity Booklet

This booklet and its story have been designed to support the listening and sound aspects of the phonics learning program. This hands-on activity gives everyday objects and homemade instruments a new purpose, and children will love to join in with the story telling and making music.

You will need:

- cereal packets - empty and clean
- spoon
- bowl
- cushion
- stick
- balloon
- two wooden blocks

Instructions

Have the objects available for your child to use before starting to read the booklet.

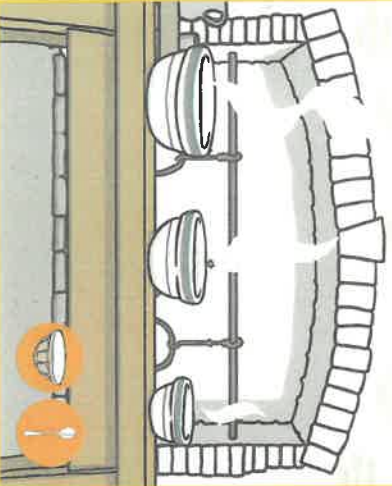

As you read the booklet, there will be opportunities to use the objects to join in with the story. There will be symbols on the page and guiding questions, so that your child can think about how they could use the objects to enhance the story.

Encourage your child to think about how playing quickly and slowly, and loudly and quietly, affects the story.

"Someone's been eating my porridge,"
growled Daddy Bear.

"Someone's been eating my porridge,"
said Mummy Bear.

"Someone's been eating my porridge and it's all gone!" cried Baby Bear.

"Someone's been sitting in my chair!"
growled Daddy Bear.

"Someone's been sitting in my chair!"
said Mummy Bear.

"Someone's been sitting in my chair and it's broken!" cried Baby Bear.

23

When they got upstairs to the bedroom, Daddy Bear growled, "Someone's been sleeping on my bed."

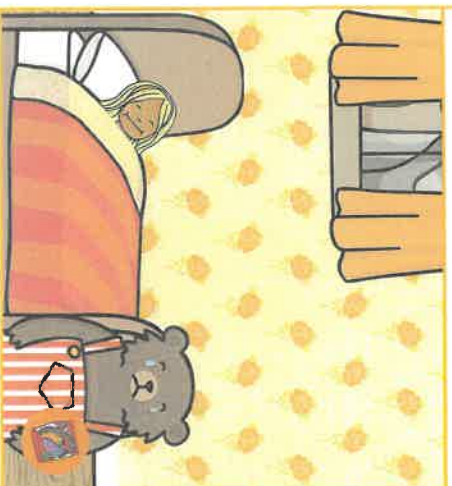

24

"Someone's been sleeping on my bed too," said Mummy Bear.

25

"Someone's been sleeping in my bed, and she's still there!" cried Baby Bear.

Can you use the balloon to make the sound of Goldilocks sleeping in Baby Bear's bed?
