

Down in the Arctic where nobody goes
There goes a polar bear stomping its toes.

Down in the Arctic where the blue whale sings
There goes a snowy owl spreading its wings.

Down in the Arctic where the cold isn't nice
There goes an arctic seal sliding on ice.

Down in the Arctic where ships never sail
There goes a killer whale flipping his tail.

Down in the Arctic where winds blow a gale
Here goes an arctic fox swishing his tail.
